

Proclamation

WHEREAS child abuse and neglect are a serious problem affecting every segment of our community, and finding solutions requires input and action from everyone in our community; and

WHEREAS our children are our most valuable resources and will shape the future of the Mineola and Wood County communities; and

WHEREAS child abuse can have long-term psychological, emotional, and physical effects that can have lifelong consequences for victims of abuse; and

WHEREAS protective factors are conditions that reduce or eliminate risk and promote the social, emotional, and developmental well-being of our children; and

WHEREAS effective child abuse prevention activities succeed because of the meaningful connections and partnerships created between child welfare, education, health, community and faith-based organizations, businesses and law enforcement agencies; and

WHEREAS communities must make every effort to promote programs and activities that benefit children and their families; and

WHEREAS we acknowledge that we must work together as a community to increase awareness about child abuse and contribute to promote the social and emotional well-being of children and families in a safe, stable, nurturing environment; and

WHEREAS prevention remains the best defense for our children and families;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mayor Kevin White do hereby proclaim

April, 2021
