I know this is for Lindale, but Mineola is our neighbor. So if it is not allowed, please delete

So every parent knows that having to stay home from work to watch after a sick kid, can be hard sometimes. But even though my daughter is sick, she is so happy right now. And I owe all that to Officer D. South. This man is amazing. We were waiting at Brookshires for her medicine and he came to talk to her about listening to her parents (did I already say this guy is amazing). Then when we went outside, he saw us coming out showed her the Inside of the police car telling her what every little button did. She had a smile as big as Texas on her face the whole time. And to top it all off, he told us to follow him to the station because he had a gift for her. A challenge coin. But not just fo her, but for her brothers and sisters. She hasn't stopped smiling since even though she isn't feeling good. Now, not only does my little girl want to be a singer, but she wants to be a singing cop. I'm good with that. Lol.

I just wanted to give a shout out to Officer D. South. Thank you do not only making a sick little girls day, but showing us what a true godly peace officer is. You are the perfect example of a protector of our community. From the bottom of my heart I thank you. This is one of Mineola's finest for sure

Thank you,
